Entertainment of a waterman to water the cocoanut trees in front of the Umamaheswara Swami temple at Nandi

From

The Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District.

Letter No. 1865/105 Dated 30th September 1907.

The Government in their Proceedings No. 342-3 dated 28th September 1894 sanctioned the temporary entertainment of 2 men on Rs 2/- each per mensem to water the cocoanut trees newly planted in front of the Oomamaheswara Swami temple at Nandi in the Chickaballapur Taluk for a period of 3 years

The Deputy Comr now reports that the watermen were retained in service till the end of October 1905 exceeding the sanctioned period by 9 years & 10 months that these Services were dispensed with from 1st November 1905 on the Comptroller objecting to pass the disbursement of the pay for four months from 1st July to 31st October 1905 & that the Amildar who was called upon to report the circumstances under which the services of the waterman were retained after the expiry of the sanctioned period, was unable to offer satisfactory explanation in the matter as the mistake occurred during his predecessor's time. He solicits sanction for the amount unauthorizedly disbursed by the Amildar and also to the permanent entertainment of watchman on a pay of Rs. 2/- per mensem as the trees are still required watering, the cost being met from the funds available at the credit of the temple.

Submitted with a draft enquiring how many trees were planted, how many of those are now thriving and if for the past two years viz from 1st Nov: 1905 there was no waterman what necessity there is for one now and what is the actual amount unauthorizedly disbursed to the waterman whose retention has necessitated fresh sanction now, & what are the savings &c.

Muzrai Dept's remarks:—

The Sri Umamaheswara Swami temple now in question is situated near the Sri Bhoganandeswara Swami temple and is connected with the amount of Rs 472 as also the pay of the waterman at Rs 2 per mensem for a period of 5 years, may be ordered to be met from the funds of the Sri Bhoganandeswaraswami temple. It would be a pity to allow the garden now consisting of 50 trees to go to ruins.

Sir,

With reference to Govt Proc.s No: 342-3 dated 28-9/1.10.1894, sanctioning the entertainment for a period of three years of two men, temporarily on Rs 2/- each per mensem, for watering the cocoanut trees, planted in front of Sri Umamaheswara Swami temple, at Nandi, in the Chickballapur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the watermen referred to were entertained viz 1st January 1893 and continued to work till the end of October 1905, exceeding the sanctioned period by 9 years and 10 months. Their services were dispensed with, from 1st November 1905, on the

Com troller

Comptroller, objecting to pass the disbursement of the pay of the men for four months, from 1st July to 31st October 1905.

2. The Amildar of Chickballapur, who was called upon to report the circumstances under which the services of the watermen were retained after the expiry of the sanctioned period, is unable to offer satisfactory explanation in the matter as the mistake occurred during the time of his predecessors, and only prays for sanction, to the amount disbursed without order. It is also reported that the two men watered the plants, till the date of their discharge from service, as the trees were very young and still required watering. Even now some of them are said to be deteriorating for for want of care and that the services of a watchman on a monthly pay of Rs 2/-, seems absolutely necessary. If the trees grow up, it will no doubt be a source of annual income to the Institution to the extent of about Rs 30/-.

3. I would therefore solicit the favour of your obtaining Government sanction for the amount unauthorizedly disbursed and also to the permanent entertainment of a man on a pay of Rs 2/- per mensem, the cost being met from the funds at the credit of the Institution
